Re: NEGOTIATIONS

Please be advised that the Company and the Union met from January 24th – 26th, 2012 for the purposes of face-to-face bargaining.

Lance Norlock, Michael Ibrahim and I successfully spent the greater part of two (2) full days negotiating most of the non-monetary issues.

We are scheduled to meet again with the company from February 15th - 17th to address the monetary issues as well as work schedules.

Your Bargaining Committee is not yet at liberty to release any of the proposals that have been discussed thus far at the bargaining table, thus I strongly urge the membership to refrain from asking your committee about any details related to this round of bargaining.

We want to make you fully aware that your current collective agreement will continue in full force until a new one is ratified by you. This means that until we have finalized the bargaining process, you will keep receiving any raises, etc., that you would have normally been entitled to.

Further bulletins will be posted in order to keep the membership advised as to the status of your negotiations.

Your Negotiating Committee greatly appreciates your cooperation and support.

In solidarity,

Michael Corrado
General Chairperson
